

 SECOND ANNOUNCEMENT *****

Spanish X-ray Astronomy 2019: present, future, synergies.

Alicante, Spain, 26 - 28 November 2019

Dear colleagues,

This is the second announcement of the IV Spanish X-ray Astronomy 2019 conference. The registration is now open at:

<http://riastronomia.es/en/astronomia-espanola-en-rayos-x-2019-presente-futuro-y-sinergias/>

where you can find the relevant information. The number of attendees is limited to about 50 persons.

We are happy to inform that Dr. Stavros Katsanevas (European Gravitational waves Observatory EGO), Dr. Matteo Guainazzi (ESTEC) and Dr. Andrew Fabian (IoA, Cambridge), among others, have confirmed their assistance and will deliver Invited Talks. We look forward to an exciting scientific program!

Thanks to the Conselleria d'Educació, Investigació, Cultura i Esport de la Generalitat Valenciana and the Red de Infraestructuras de Astronomía we can offer some limited support towards travelling expenses (travel, accommodation and per diem), specially for students and young post-docs. If you wish to apply, please contact us before October 15.

The Conference dinner is planned on 27th November, with a price around 35 euros.

For those choosing accommodation at Villa Universitaria <http://www.villauniversitaria.com/> remember that this is on a first come, first served basis, at very affordable prices. So we encourage to contact the hotel as soon as possible in order to book a room.

If some of you need an invitation letter to get a visa, please contact us as soon as possible.

Please do not hesitate to send this announcement to other colleagues who might be interested in attending.

All the best,
