Venue

The meeting will take place at the 'Gobierno de Aragon' Local Government office building, otherwise known as "Edificio Carmelitas", located in Calle San Francisco 1, 44001. Access to this building is available from both Calle San Francisco or next to the Park by the Train Station. The building is in a very central location, with plenty of hotels and restaurants nearby. Hotels Botanicos, Reina Cristina and Mudayyan are particularly close, but all others are well within walking distance as well.

The workshop talks will be held at the Events Hall of the building (i.e. "Salon de Actos") on the 4th floor (at street level by Calle San Francisco), and the coffee breaks, welcome cocktail and registration will be held at the Wall room (Sala La Muralla), with access by the park next to the train station, on the ground floor. The photo of the building on this page was taken from the park.

Transportation & Travel Information

Nearby international airports and options to get to Teruel:

Teruel is located in the middle point between big cities such as Madrid (300 km), Barcelona (410 km), Valencia (140 km) and Zaragoza (180 km). It does not have an airport but can be easily reached from all the international hubs of these bigger cities. The available options for landing in Spain are, in order of increasing distance from Teruel:

- Valencia: <http://www.aeropuerto-valencia.com/>
- Zaragoza: <http://www.zaragoza-airport.com/en/>
- Madrid-Barajas: <http://www.aeropuertomadrid-barajas.com/>
- Barcelona-El Prat: <http://www.aeropuertobarcelona-elprat.com/>

Once you are in one of these cities, you can easily reach Teruel either by bus, train or car. The options are listed below, in order of travel time. The parenthesis mark the approximate "effective travel time" (i.e. not counting stops or transfers between lines):

- Plane flight to Valencia → then: car rental + car trip (1.5hr) / bus (2hr) / train (2.5hr)
- Plane flight to Zaragoza → then: car rental + car trip (1.75hr) / bus (2hr) / train (2.5hr)
- Plane flight to Madrid → then: bus (3-5hr) / train to Zaragoza + bus (4hr) / car rental + car trip (4.5hr) / train to Zaragoza + train to Teruel (4.5hr)
- Plane flight to Barcelona → then: train to Zaragoza + bus (3-4hr) / car rental + car trip (4-5hr) / train to Zaragoza + train (4-54hr) / bus to Zaragoza + bus (5-6hr)

Below you can find details on all the possible paths and means of transportation which you can choose from either Valencia, Zaragoza, Madrid or Barcelona.

How to get from the airports to bus/train stations:

Valencia:

The Valencia bus station is located next to the “Turia” underground station (on line 1). In order to get to Turia station, take either underground line 3 (red line) or line 5 (green line) from the airport station (head of both lines) and transfer to line 1 (yellow line, directions “Bétera - Llíria - Paterna - Empalme”) at the Àngel Guimerà underground station.

Trains to/from Valencia leave the city from “Estació del Nord” station. In order to reach it from Valencia airport take line 3 (red line) and get off at “Xàtiva” station. No transfers are needed.

Zaragoza:

Buses and trains to/from Zaragoza are both operated from the “Delicias” station. In order to reach the train/bus terminal from the airport you just need to take the 501 bus at Zaragoza airport, which is a direct line operating on the Airport - Estación Delicias route. No transfers are needed.

Madrid:

Buses leave Madrid only from “Madrid-Estacion Sur” bus station. To reach it from Madrid-Barajas airport it is necessary to take the metro line 8 (pink line direction “Nuevos Ministerios”), and change to line 6 (grey line direction “Mendez Álvaro”) at “Nuevos Ministerios” station.

Trains leave Madrid from “Atocha” train station. Take line 8 (pink line) from Madrid-Barajas airport (direction “Nuevos Ministerios”) and transfer to line 6 (grey line) in order to get to “Cuatro Caminos” station (1 stop away from “Nuevos Ministerios”). Transfer to line 1 (cyan line) direction “Valdecarros” and get off in “Atocha - RENFE” underground station.

Barcelona:

Buses and trains to/from Barcelona are both operated from “Barcelona - Estacion Nord” station. In order to reach it, take the “Aerobus” service from any terminal at Barcelona airport and transfer to the underground line 1 (direction “Fondo”) in the “plaza Espanya” station of Aerobus. The closest stop to “Barcelona - Estacion Nord” on line 1 is the “Arc de Triomf” underground station.
